PUBLIC HEARINGS

J-1. The matter to hold a public hearing to receive public input regarding the composition of potential City Council districts was presented by City Clerk, Pamela Christian, Assistant City Attorney, James Atencio, and Shalice Tilton, senior consultant with National Demographics Corporation, who gave an overview of the matter. The City received a demand letter from attorney Scott J. Rafferty (Rafferty) against the City under the California Voting Rights Act (CVRA) if the City does not transition from at-large to district-based elections of City Councilmembers. Code 10010 to include a “safe-harbor” provision that gives jurisdictions the opportunity to change their election system once they receive a demand letter and caps legal fees recoverable by a plaintiff at $30,000 if a jurisdiction adopts a resolution of intention to transition to district-based elections that outlines specific steps and estimates a time frame, within forty-five (45) days of receiving the demand letter; and holds at least four (4) public hearings and adopts an ordinance within ninety (90) days of adopting the resolution of intention. On October 22, 2019 the City adopted a Resolution of Intention to transition from at-large to district-based elections of City Councilmembers. Discussion ensued. The mayor declared the public hearing open. The following individuals gave comments: Andres Soto, Don Gosney, Susan Wehrle, Kevin Mathieu, Leisa Johnson, Joseph Pulco, Scott Rafferty, David Drisdale, Charles Smith, Jan Mignone, Kabir Kapur, and Mike Parker. The public hearing was closed. Following discussion, a motion was made by Councilmember Willis, seconded by Councilmember Johnson III, and scheduled two community workshops before January 20, 2019, with the assistance of monolingual translators. The December 3, and 17, 2019, City Council meeting were used as community workshops.

Councilmember Johnson III made a friendly amendment to conduct three workshops in the north, south, and central areas of the city, which was accepted by Councilmember Willis. The city council requested monolingual equipment for translation. The motion passed by the following vote: Ayes: Councilmembers Bates, Johnson III, Myrick, Martinez, and Vice Mayor Choi. Noes: Mayor Butt. Absent: Councilmember Willis. Abstain: None.
