AGENDA REVIEW

Juan Reardon submitted speakers’ cards to remove all items from the Consent Calendar.

Continued Items F-30 and F-31 to continue to September 2008.

Items F-1, F-2, and L-3 were moved to be heard immediately after the Report From The City Attorney Of Final Decisions Made And Non-Confidential Discussions Held During Closed Session.
PRESENTATIONS, PROCLAMATIONS, AND COMMENDATIONS

Councilmember Bates presented television interview tapes to the Richmond Public Library, West Contra Costa Unified School District (WCCUSD), and the Richmond Museum. The tapes consist of interviews with African-American elected officials and community leaders in the City of Richmond. Superintendent, Bruce Harter, of the WCCUSD and the representative of the Richmond Public Library accepted the tapes and expressed their appreciation. Corky Booze spoke on this item.

Councilmember Bates gave an overview of the Richmond globe Newspaper’s reporting styles. Vice Mayor Marquez read a proclamation recognizing the Globe’s outstanding reporting style and presented the proclamation to Publisher Vernon Whitmore and Associate Publisher Eleanor Boswell-Raine. Mr. Whitmore and Mrs. Boswell-Raine gave comments on behalf of the Globe Newspaper staff and thanked the Council for the proclamation. Javonka Beckles and Jerome Smith spoke on this item.

Dave Campbell, East Bay Bicycle Coalition, gave a presentation and presented each member with a certificate and bike bag. Corky Booze spoke on this item.

Vice Mayor Marquez announced that an item regarding National Night Out was inadvertently left off the Agenda. He announced that Cynthia Hayden, Chairperson for The Richmond Crime Prevention, invited everyone to participate in the National Night Out activities on Tuesday, August 5, 2008. National Night Out is a national event against crime. It is a time when communities stand together in solidarity to support building stronger neighborhoods and promotes civic engagement. Many cities throughout the country celebrate National Night Out with block parties where neighbors can meet and greet one another and connect with local law enforcement. The National Night Out Caravan will visit neighborhoods throughout the City. This year Target Stores will be our community partners and will host the kick off and ending parties. Other speakers were Myrtle Braxton-Ellington, and Naomi Williams.
