Continued Resolutions

CONTINUED to the July 29, 2014, City Council meeting, a resolution limiting the amount of time that Councilmembers have to ask questions.

Continued Council as a Whole

The matter to direct the city manager to work with the city attorney and the police chief to provide the Council with possible options on rules and procedures the Council may adopt for handling disruptions during the City Council meetings was presented by Vice Mayor Beckles. Due to the increasing number of disruptions during Richmond City Council Meetings, a policy should be enacted that addresses disruptive behavior and restores an atmosphere conducive to conducting business. Many cities have found or adopted means by which to govern the chaos that frequents public meetings. Examples of policies range from suspension, charging disruptors with misdemeanors, and adopting a civility policy through which all public speakers must adhere to when they register to speak before the council. The following individuals gave comments: Pam Bilbo, Jackie Thompson, Mike Peritz, Stephanie Hervey, Kenneth Davis, Amalia Darling, Don Gosney, Bea Roberson, Jeanne Kortz, Marilyn Langlois, Jim, Kathleen Zahradka, Mike Parker, Wesley Ellis, Eduardo Martinez, Cheryl Sudduth, Steven Bates, Mike Ali, Melvin Willis, Dennis Dalton, Sharon Sanders, and Carole Johnson. Discussion ensued.
