Carl Massey inquired about the Disabled Persons Recreation Center budget. He stated that as of May, the DPRC would have a budget. He stated that the former City Manager directed DPRC be removed from the Recreation and Parks budget. He requested reinstatement of the DPRC budget as soon as possible. He said that the program is viable, successful, and necessary program serving those citizens of Richmond with special needs.

Janet Lloyd-Massey stated that Disabled Persons Recreation Center (DPRC) helps the children know that they are not alone in their challenges of being different. She stated that those with children without disabilities are lucky. She said that by not budgeting DPRC is heartless that borders on discrimination and prejudice. She asked that no decision be made regarding DPRC until after the June 15, 2005, meeting with Bill Lindsay, City Manager.

Felicia Cowen said that DPRC is the only program that is interchangeable. She stated that these children deserve a chance.

Shannon McCants asked that the DPRC program not be dismantled. She said that this program is the only program where she can be a participant.

Teresa Crowl’s son has been at DPRC for more than two years. She said that there are no other such programs in Richmond. There is a waiting list with over fifty youth. She said that merging the program with another is not an option.

Corky Booze gave comments that Mindell Penn will be a great loss. Additionally, he stated that Blessed are the Peacemakers group did a fabulous job on Saturday with the Black on Black Crime Summit. He thanked Pastor Carleton Leonard for the program he had on Sunday. He asked that DPRC be kept open.
Lynda McPhee gave comments regarding the DPRC budget. She stated that participant numbers are missing and not counted. She said that each participant pay for the privilege of participating in the program.

Odessa Green asked that the City of Richmond be cleaned up. She stated that she does not like the way Richmond is today. She said that there is only one grocery store, pot holes everywhere and drug dealers.

Yuri Ito reported that her dog was attacked by a pit bull in the prior week. She said that one of her neighbors is breeding fighting dogs and the dogs are allowed to run free in the neighborhood. She said there are children in the neighborhood.

Juanita Taylor spoke regarding the Disabled Persons Recreation Center. She asked the Council to meet and discuss the issue with the parents.

Melissa Ehman, neighbor of Yuri Ito asked the Council to access the resources available to prevent and follow up on persons that may be breeding dangerous animals for the purpose of attacking.
