RESOLUTIONS

I-1. The matter to discuss and adopt a Resolution Declaring the City's Intention, Pursuant to Elections Code Section 10010, to initiate procedures for establishing and implementing By-District Elections for City Councilmembers; and authorize the city manager to execute an agreement to retain the services of National Demographics Corporation to assist with the transition to By-District Elections was presented by Assistant City Attorney James Atencio, and Attorney Michael Colantuono. On September 11, 2019, the City received a demand letter from Attorney Scott J. Rafferty which threatened legal action against the City under the California Voting Rights Act (CVRA) if the City did not transition from at-large to district-based elections of City Councilmembers. Discussion ensued. The following individuals gave comments: Cordell Hindler, Antwon Cloird, Don Gosney, Cesar Zepeda, Kara Braxton, David Drisdale, Scott Rafferty, Joseph Puleo, Kathleen Wimer, Zak Wear, Ben Therriault, Charles Smith, Leisa Johnson, and Mike Parker. Following discussion, a motion by Councilmember Myrick, seconded by Vice Mayor Choi, approved the item and adopted Resolution No. 99-19, by the following vote:

Ayes: Councilmembers Bates, Johnson III, Myrick, Vice Mayor Choi, and Mayor Butt.
Noes: Councilmember Martinez.
Absent: None.

BUDGET SESSION

J-1. The matter to receive a presentation of the City of Richmond departmental reorganization and adopt a resolution to allocate $125,000 from the General Fund to pay for a management-level Classification and Compensation Study ($50,000) and an opt-out program for managers who are displaced ($75,000) was presented by Interim City Manager Steven Falk. A Powerpoint highlighted the following: the City's current configuration and how it did not meet modern standards for span of control; best demonstrated practices of how most California cities of comparable size to Richmond have the city manager supervising seven to nine direct reports; the process of the reorganization; and the new proposed organization chart, notes and features. The new organization chart reduced the city manager’s span of control from 21 to nine employees and converted two positions into deputy city manager roles, which created succession candidates for the City’s top administrative position. The new organization chart resulted in no layoffs and no pay cuts. Discussion ensued. The following individuals gave comments: Cordell Hindler, Gregory Everett, Kevin Tisdell, Dee Karnes, Luis Padilla, Rosanne Ryken, Stacey Walker, and Ben Terriault. Following discussion, a motion was made by Councilmember Myrick, seconded by Vice Mayor Choi, to not adopt a resolution and moved forward with the reorganization and approve the allocation of $75,000 for the opt-out provision. The motion also directed staff to research the cost of a classification and compensation study for the entire City. Councilmember Bates offered a friendly amendment to receive a progress report on this matter in six months, which was accepted by Councilmember Myrick. The motion passed by the following vote: Ayes: Councilmembers Bates, Johnson III, Myrick, Vice Mayor Choi, and Mayor Butt. Noes: Councilmember Martinez. Absent: None. Abstain: Councilmember Willis.

J-2. The City Council received a report to approve year-end adjustments for the Fiscal Year ending June 30, 2019, from Finance Director Belinda Brown, Accounting Manager Antonio Banuelos, and Budget Administrator Markisha Guillory. A Powerpoint was presented, which highlighted the following: an overview -The General Fund ended Fiscal Year 2018-19 with a projected surplus of approximately $4.5 million; factors to consider for financial stability; General Fund adjustments; Impact Fee adjustments; negative cash balances; General Fund Revenue unaudited; General Fund expenditures; General Fund summary; and General Fund adjustments. The following individuals gave comments: Cordell Hindler, Sean Stalbaum, and Ben Therriault. On motion of Councilmember Myrick, seconded by Councilmember Willis approved the year-end adjustments for the Fiscal Year ending June 30, 2019, by the unanimous vote of the Council.

J-3. The matter to receive a report on the status of the operating and capital improvement budget for the first quarter of the Fiscal Year 2019-20 was presented by Finance Director Belinda Brown. A Powerpoint presentation highlighted: General Fund ended Fiscal Year 2018-19 with a projected surplus of approximately $4.5 million; factors to consider for financial stability; general fund adjustments; non-general fund adjustments; impact fee adjustments; negative cash balances; general fund revenue; and general fund expenditures. The following individuals gave comments: Cordell Hindler, Dee Karnes, and Sean Stalbaum. A motion by Councilmember Myrick, seconded by Councilmember Johnson III, received the report by the unanimous vote of the City Council.

(Mayor Butt stated Item L-I would be moved up for discussion before Item K-1. A motion by Councilmember Myrick, seconded by Councilmember Johnson III, overruled Mayor Butt, by the following vote: Ayes: Councilmembers Bates, Johnson III, Martinez, Myrick, Willis, and Vice Mayor Choi. Noes: Mayor Butt. Absent: None. Abstain: None).
