"WE ARE IN THE HEALTH BUSINESS"
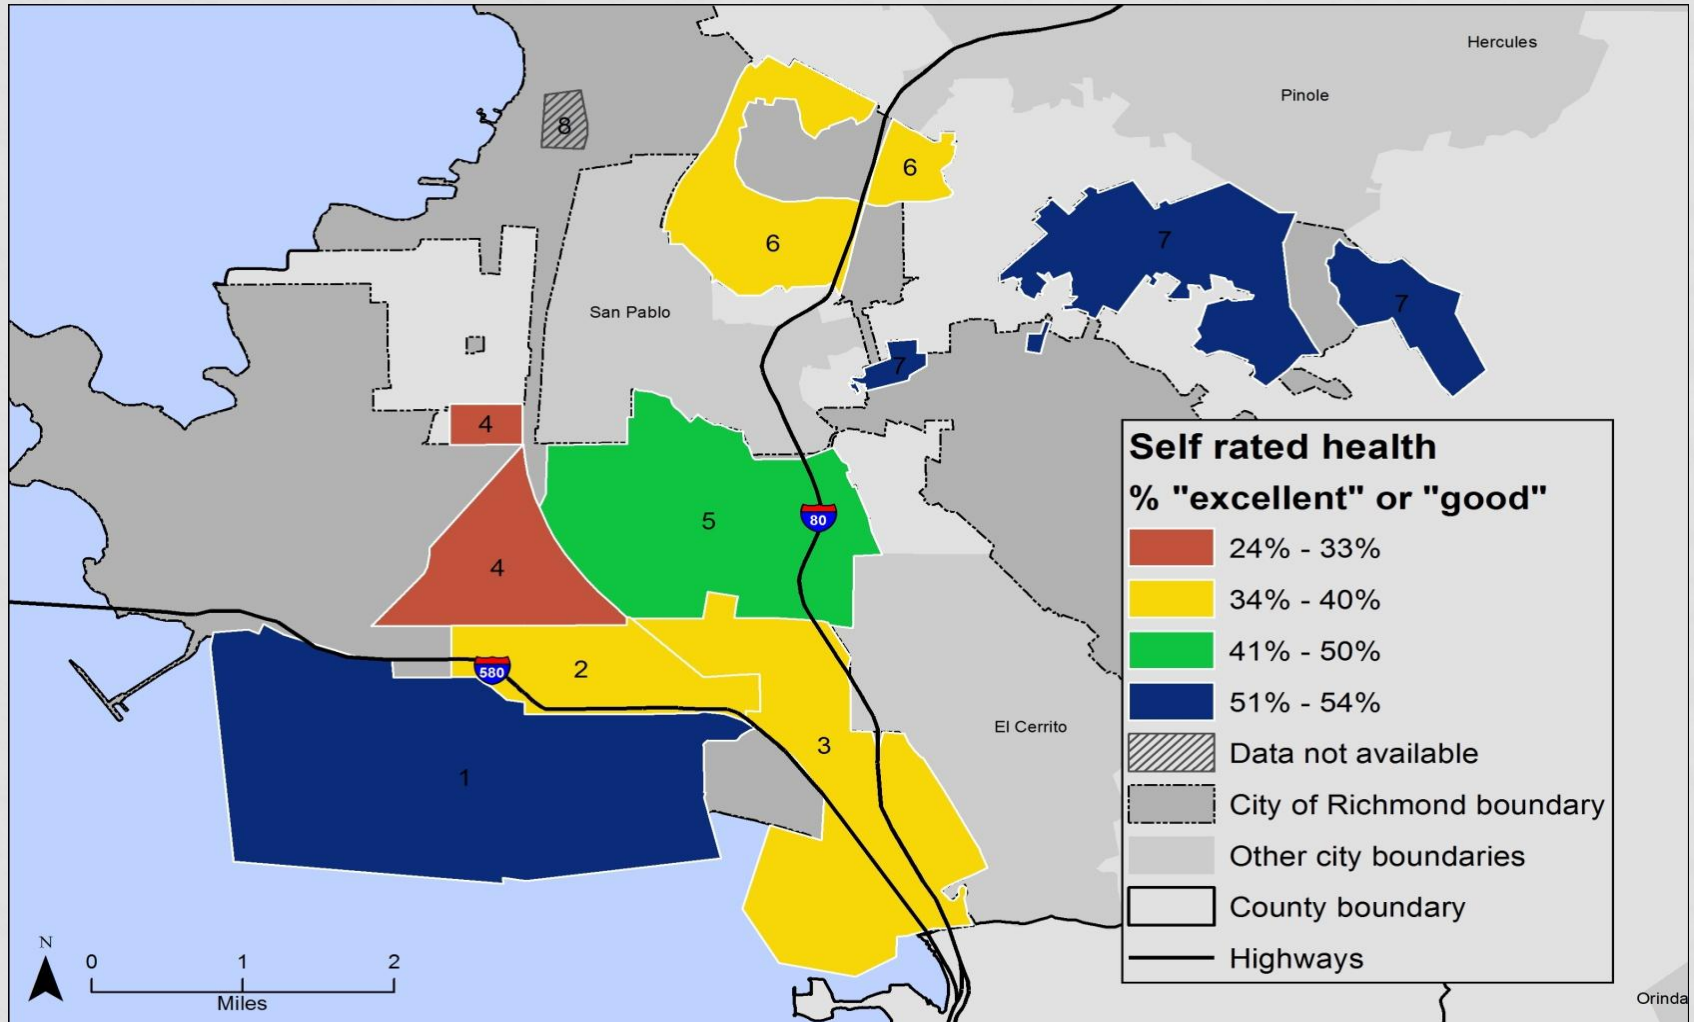

– BILL LINDSAY, RICHMOND, CITY MANAGER

City services through the prism of health.
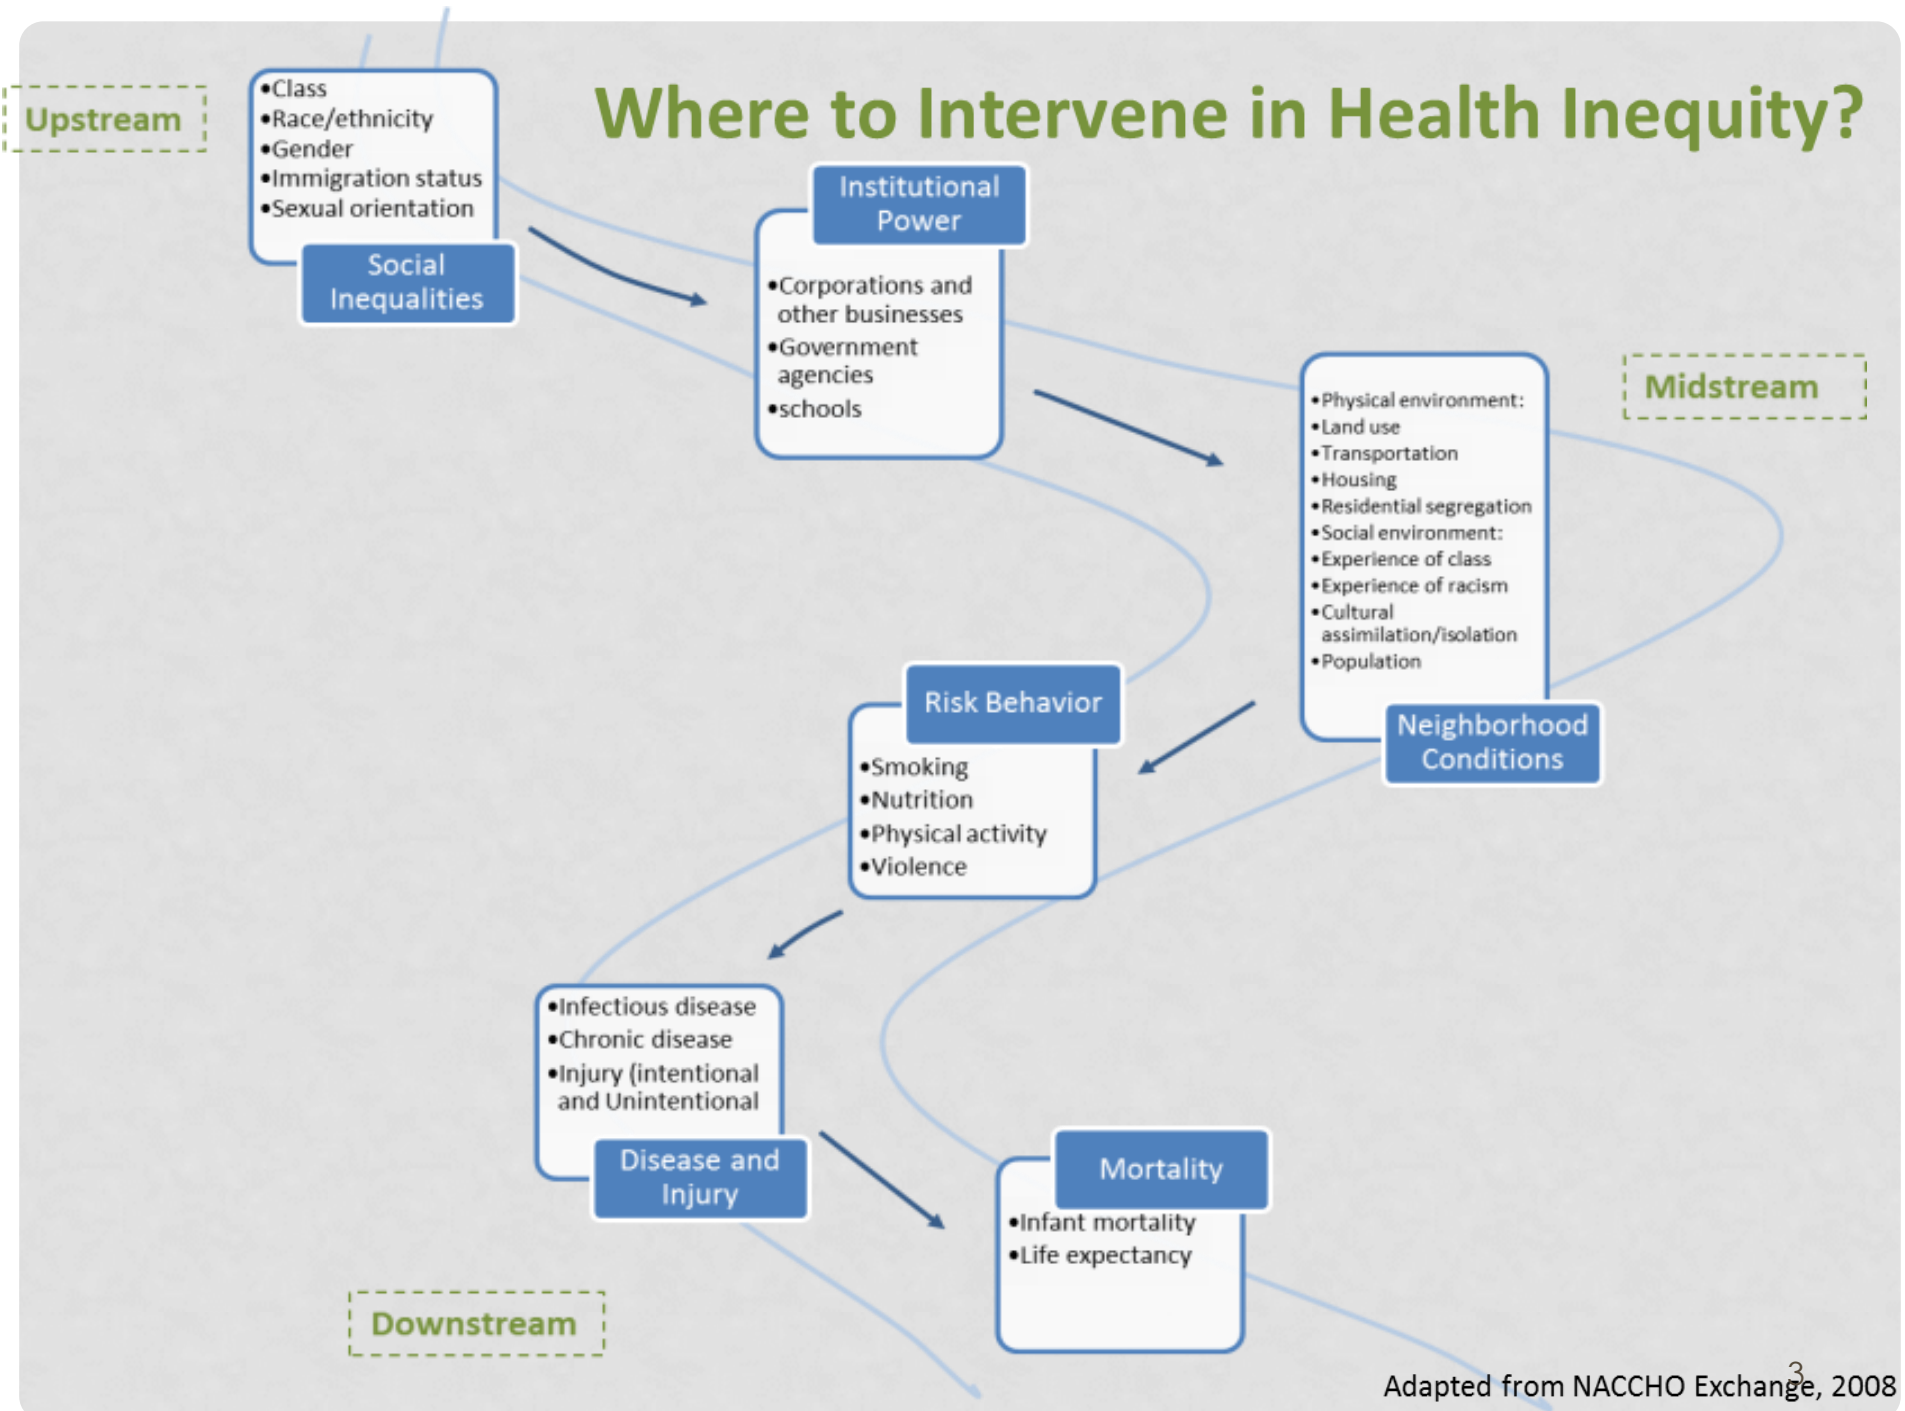

www.richmondhealth.org

PLACE MATTERS

Self-reported health from the 2011 Richmond Community Survey

Where to Intervene in Health Inequity?

- Class
- Race/ethnicity
- Gender
- Immigration status
- Sexual orientation

Social Inequalities

Institutional Power

- Corporations and other businesses
- Government agencies
- schools

Midstream

- Physical environment:
- Land use
- Transportation
- Housing
- Residential segregation
- Social environment:
- Experience of class
- Experience of racism
- Cultural assimilation/isolation
- Population

Neighborhood Conditions

Risk Behavior

- Smoking
- Nutrition
- Physical activity
- Violence

- Infectious disease
- Chronic disease
- Injury (intentional and Unintentional

Disease and Injury

Mortality

- Infant mortality
- Life expectancy

Downstream
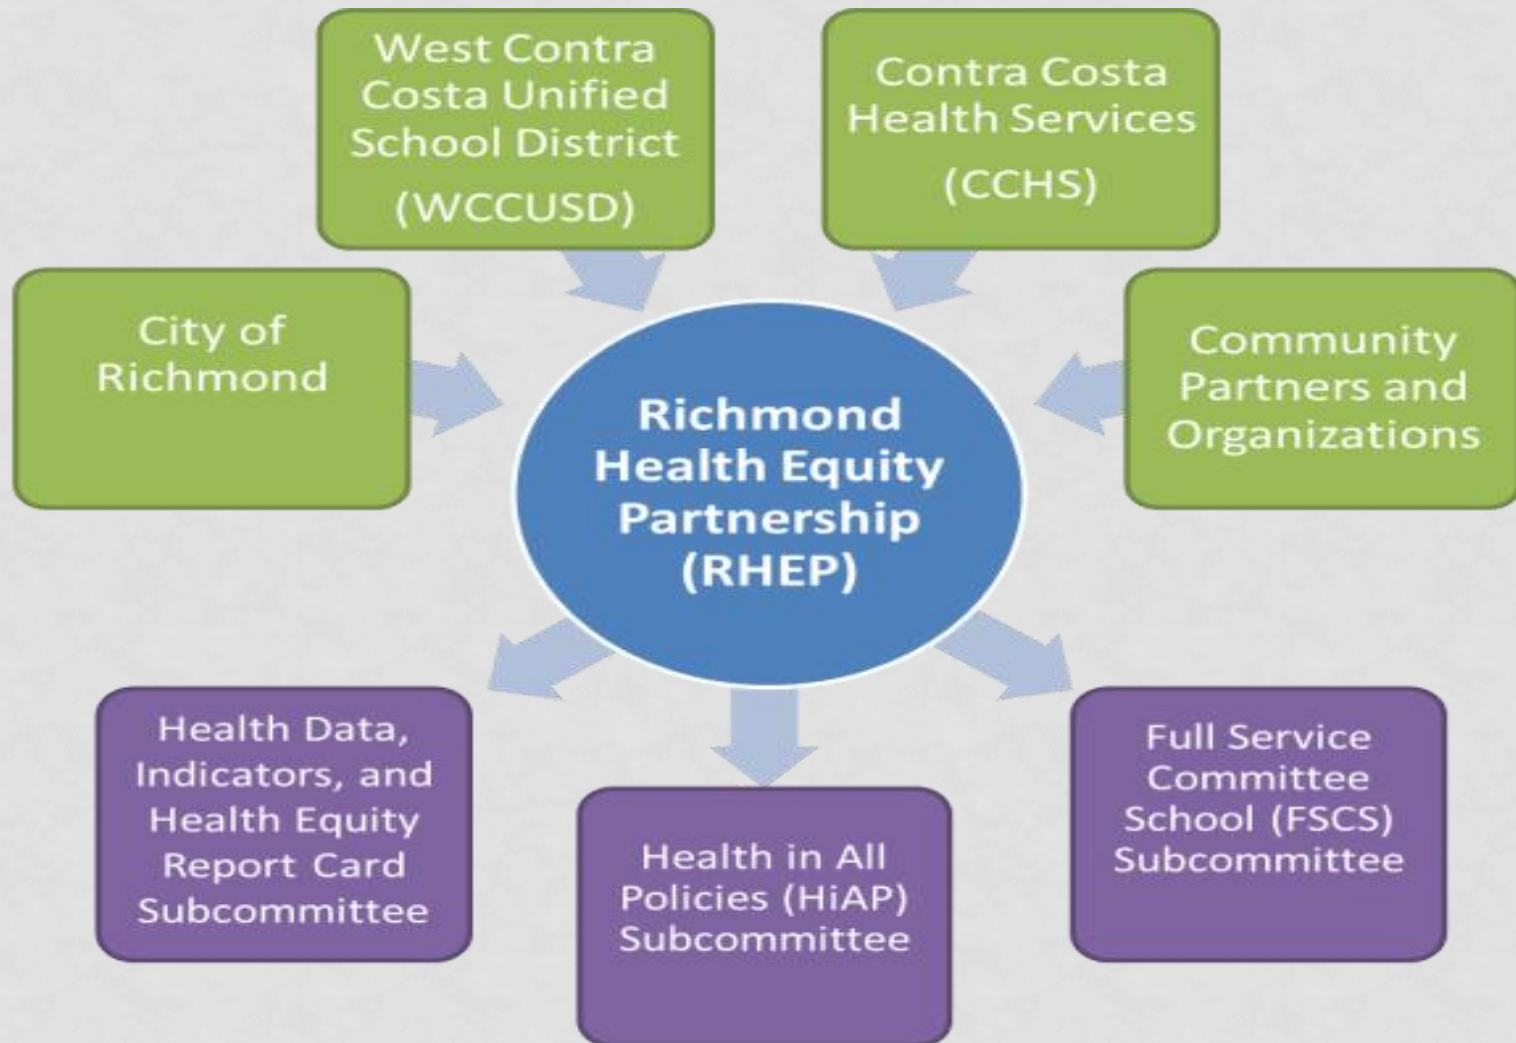

Adapted from NACCHO Exchange, 2008

3

IMPLEMENTING THE CITY'S COMMUNITY HEALTH AND WELLNESS ELEMENT

Goal of Health in All Policies (HiAP): Developing a Health Equity Framework & Operationalizing the General Plan

- Formalization of HiAP in a legal document
  - Create a system of inter-department communication
  - Data collection and analysis
  - Reporting and updating plan

- Define Richmond's Health Equity Framework
  - Develop health equity language
  - Education and Training of Staff

- Integration of community and partner entities
  - Community Outreach and Education programs
  - Maintain transparency and community engagement

RICHMOND HEALTH EQUITY PARTNERSHIP (RHEP)

IN PROGRESS: HEALTH IN ALL POLICIES (HIAP) IN RICHMOND

- Economic Development and Education: LBNL Second Campus Video

  - Robin D. Lopez, Costa Community College, Center for Science Excellence (CSE) Program, West Contra Costa Unified School District Graduate

To learn more:
www. Richmondhealth.org

Shasa Curl, Administrative Chief, City of Richmond
shasa_curl@ci.richmond.ca.us