

You're invited to a free literary salon!

Local author, Margaret C. Murray

invites you to a

WRITING SALON

Saturday, February 18, 2017 2:00 – 4:00pm

What is a Salon?

Salon: a gathering of people under the roof of an inspiring host, held partly to amuse one another and partly to refine the taste and increase the knowledge of the participants through conversation

Why should I come to a Writing Salon?

- You're proud of your written work and are want to share it.
- You're fairly sure your work is unreadable and want evidence to support your claim.
- You love to read.
- You are a writer at heart.
- You are any or none of the above and want to hang out with some other people who love writing just like you!

To RSVP a spot to read, call 510-620-5515. Leave your name, your contact info and the genre of the piece you will read. Please time your reading for between 3-6 minutes. If you have questions about the salon, email writewordspress@gmail.com

Richmond Public Library, Whittlesey Room

325 Civic Center Plaza, Richmond, CA 94804

510.620.6561 www.richmondlibrary.org

Margaret C. Murray is the author of Spiral, Sundagger.net, and Dreamers. She was born in Pittsburgh, PA, and graduated from Carnegie-Mellon University and Hunter College. She attended the Provincetown Fine Arts Work Center and the Squaw Valley Screenwriters Conference. Margaret is the owner of WriteWords Press and has lived in the San Francisco Bay Area for many years, most recently in Sebastopol and Pinole. She is a mother and grandmother.

Program sponsored by The Friends of the Richmond Public Library.

