

Richmond Art Needs You!

Join the City of Richmond's Public Art Advisory Committee (PAAC) to support public art

"32 Miles of Shoreline" art by John Wehrle

Richmond Public Art Needs Your Help

Contact City of Richmond Arts and Culture Manager Michele Seville today:

mseville@ci.richmond.ca.us
510.620.6952

The Public Art Advisory Committee (PAAC) of Richmond, CA is seeking new volunteers!

We are a small, dedicated group of art enthusiasts who are committed to sustaining the arts in Richmond.

You don't have to live in Richmond, you just have to care about this city and have a passion for the arts.

Ideal candidates for PAAC include engineers, educators, business owners, policy makers, architects, artists, musicians, lawyers, tech developers and more.

Your minimum commitment is to a two year term which includes monthly meetings, regularly occurring on the second Tuesday at 7:00 pm at City Hall 450 Civic Center Plaza.

There is plenty of work to do, so we are looking for individuals who can roll up their sleeves and commit to supporting art in Richmond.

Sound interesting?

Please come to one of our public meetings—we look forward to meeting you!