

Hon. Mayor and Members of the City Council:

Representatives from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) have returned to provide their mobile Disaster Recovery Center to assist residents that were impacted by the December 2022 and January 2023 winter storms. FEMA representatives became available this morning, March 7th from 8:00 AM through 5:00 PM at the Nevin parking lot between 24th and 25th Streets. They will also be available at the same location tomorrow, Wednesday March 8th, from 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM. Indoor conference rooms in City Hall have been identified and reserved for FEMA's use in case of inclement weather.

FEMA

Mobile Disaster Recovery Center

Tue., Mar. 7th & Wed., Mar. 8th • 8AM - 5PM

Richmond Civic Center Parking Lot
(Between 24th St & 25th St.)

In case of inclement weather, FEMA representatives will be available inside of 450 Civic Center Plaza

Have this information with you:

- Social Security or Tax ID Number
- Address of damaged home
- Current phone number
- Address where you can get mail or email notifications
- Insurance information

Come in person to the Disaster Recovery Center to sign up or follow up on your application

FEMA

Mobile Disaster Recovery Center Opens in Contra Costa County

If you experienced damages or losses to your home or business as a result of the 2023 Winter storms you may be eligible for federal assistance.

