Renaming of Spring St., Richmond, CA ?

Our son, Pedie Perez, was killed by a Richmond police officer on Sunday, September 14, 2014, right around the corner, in front of Uncle Sam's Liquors (3322 Cutting Blvd.). We have support from Richmond City Council members and many others to memorialize Pedie by renaming this part of Spring Street where he last worked for the family business when his life was cut short.

Part of the process involves the City of Richmond determining how the residents and/or property owners feel about the name change.

If you find that you support us to memorialize Pedie, your signature below would go a very long way with the City of Richmond as we address all their requirements. There are several steps, but this is but one of the very important ones.
