

Mayor and Members of the City Council:

This is the report for the week ending June 23, 2017.

1. Meeting Notes

The next City Council meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, June 27th, beginning with Closed Session at 5:30 PM, followed by the regular meeting at 6:30 PM. The agenda may be found by clicking this link: Richmond City Council Agenda Packet.

2. Fiscal Year 2017-18 Operating and Capital Improvement Budget

Over the last several fiscal years, it has been a challenge to prepare balanced budgets while still trying to meet the growing needs of the community. Average annual growth in the City's top three revenue sources has averaged less than 1.5% per year during the past nine years – a level well below inflation. It was only in fiscal year 2016-17 that the City's property taxes finally exceeded pre-recession levels that existed eight years earlier. These revenue struggles were against the backdrop of significantly higher costs, especially pension-related costs, and an aging infrastructure. Achieving budget balances and favorable operating results during the past three fiscal years has created difficult policy choices for the City Council, but these difficult choices were successfully made.

While fiscal year 2017-18 was, in many ways, no less difficult in achieving financial goals, Finance Department staff was able to work closely with the various City departments to craft a budget that I believe offers a stable baseline for the coming years. At the June 20th Richmond City Council meeting, City staff presented to the City Council a balanced budget (a whopping $442 surplus!) that is being recommended for adoption at this coming Tuesday's June 27th City Council meeting.

I would like to acknowledge in this report the efforts of Finance Director Belinda Warner, Budget Administrator Markisha Guillory, members of their budget team, and staff members in the various departments that are charged with managing the money. They have worked hard to prepare collectively a financial plan that sets the City on a strong financial course.

3. Community Services Department Secures Over $350,000 in Grants During the Month of June

June is turning out to be a great month for the Community Services Department to receive grants. This past month, the department was awarded six grants to support programs, activities, and capital improvement projects.

Last week, we received word that the Community Services Department was the recipient of two state grant awards from the California Department of Parks and Recreation for outdoor basketball courts. The John F. Kennedy Park Basketball Court proposal received $182,740, and the Unity Park Basketball Court proposal was awarded $167,650. The State Department of Parks and Recreation received 166 competitive grant proposals requesting over $16 million in funding; Richmond was one of only 25 grant recipients statewide. Moreover, Richmond was the only community in the state to receive two grant awards.

The Community Service Department's Achieve Summer Camp received two $1,000 grants from the Richmond Community Foundation's Summer Mini-Grants Program to engage youth in meaningful activities during the summer. The Shields-Reid Community Center will use its funds to install a bike and pump repair station near the center to teach kids bike repair techniques. Staff and participants of the summer camp program at the Parchester Community Center will conduct a community clean up.

The Richmond Community Foundation (RCF) also awarded two $1,000 grants to support the John F. Kennedy Park Summer Neighborhood Camp. In conjunction with the West Contra Costa Unified School District's summer lunch program, RCF's Summer Reading Celebration Grant will provide new books and reading circles to children between the ages of 0-8 and their families. Funding from the Richmond Community Foundation's Summer Mini-Grants Program will also support the neighborhood camp's water safety program for kids at the Richmond Swim Center.

We appreciate the generosity of our grant donors, and the efforts by City staff members that were involved in preparing and submitting applications for these grant programs.

9. Richmond Promise (RP) College Success Workshops & 2016 Scholarship Renewal Application

College Success Workshop

440 Richmond Promise Scholars from the graduating Class of 2017 will be representing Richmond at 55 different colleges and universities this fall!

This summer, RP's number one priority is to support its scholars through the summer months to ensure full-time and on-time college enrollment this fall. One way they are doing this is by hosting a series of College Success Workshops in June and July. These workshops are open and mandatory for all scholarship recipients.

Nearly 300 scholars attended the first four workshops! RP offered their thanks to its participating partner organizations: Youth Finance Institute of America (YFIA), SparkPoint, Students Rising Above, and Contra Costa College for making these workshops a success.

Didn't attend a workshop yet? That's okay! The Richmond Promise team will be holding one more workshop in July. Please encourage a scholar in your life to sign up and attend if they haven't:

Marisol is a graduate of Middle College High School who will be attending UC Davis in the fall of 2017. She stressed that, “helping the community doesn’t help just one generation, but generations from then on.”

11. We Need Your Input on the City’s Local Hazard Mitigation Plan

The City of Richmond is updating its Local Hazard Mitigation Plan in partnership with Contra Costa County. The Local Hazard Mitigation Plan serves as a coordinating document for the City and approximately three dozen local agencies and special purpose districts to reduce their risks from a wide range of potential natural and non-natural hazards, including earthquakes, floods, wildfires, and extreme heat.

You can be a part of this effort to update the current plan by taking just a few short minutes to fill out our brief survey.

The current plan was developed in 2011 and approved in April of 2012; it is expected that the update process will take approximately six months. Thank you for your time and contribution to this effort!

14. Fire Department and CERT Evacuation Drill for Safety

On Saturday, June 3rd, the Richmond Fire Department oversaw Brickyard Landing’s annual emergency evacuation drill. Fire alarm systems were activated at all five residential buildings, alerting residents to evacuate their homes in an orderly manner. A total of 181 residents were safely evacuated and accounted for from 123 individual condominium units. The drill met the Department’s egress and reflex time objectives, and no injuries were reported. This exercise is consistent with the Fire Department’s public education to children and adults for establishing “exit drills in the home” or “EDITH” - always remember to establish a meeting location to ensure everyone is accounted for.

During the exercise, Brickyard Landing volunteers encountered a “real world” medical emergency incident, which was immediately reported to the firefighters. Engine 61 (Point Richmond Station) hurried to this incident where medical treatment was provided and immediate medical transport was arranged. Richmond’s Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) members’ assistance with the training exercise provided a firsthand example of our program’s benefits. Way to go, Richmond CERT!
