

The logo for Arts Forum: Richmond features the text "Arts Forum: Richmond" in a serif font, arranged in a semi-circle. The word "Arts" is on the left, "Forum:" is in the middle, and "Richmond" is on the right. The text is surrounded by several empty rectangular boxes of varying sizes, some of which are tilted at an angle.

Arts Forum: Richmond

The Arts are alive and thriving in Richmond

Arts Forum Richmond (formerly known as the Richmond Arts Administrators Group) announces a new mission to meet the needs of a vibrant and growing arts community.

Arts Forum Richmond serves both as a collaborative and information sharing network for arts organizations in Richmond. The Forum facilitates communications regarding developments in the arts with the City of Richmond and advocates for visibility of the arts in Richmond and Contra Costa County.

Arts Forum Richmond members include East Bay Center for the Performing Arts, Masquers Playhouse, Organization of Cultural Renaissance, National Institute of Art and Disabilities, The Quilt of Many Colors Project, Richmond Arts and Culture Commission, Richmond Art Center and the Richmond Museum of History.