

ORDINANCE NO. 22-85 N.S.AN ORDINANCE OF THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND PERTAINING TO THE NUMBER OF TERMS THAT CAN BE SERVED ON VARIOUS CITY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

The Council of the City of Richmond do ordain as follows:

Section 1. Section 3.04.010 of the Municipal Code
of the City of Richmond is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.04.010 Membership. There is hereby established a Building Regulations Advisory and Appeals Board consisting of nine technically qualified members who shall be appointed by the Mayor with the approval of the City Council. The members shall serve for a period of four years; provided, however, that the first Board appointed shall so qualify themselves by lot that their several terms shall expire as follows: Three at the end of the first year; two at the end of the second year; two at the end of the third year, and two at the end of the fourth year. No member shall serve for more than two consecutive full terms. Members of the Board shall receive no compensation other than expenses approved by the City Council. Vacancies shall be filled for the unexpired terms in the manner provided for original appointments. Any member of said Board may be removed at any time by the affirmative vote of not less than five members of the Council. The absence of any member from four consecutive regular meetings of the Board, except on account of his own illness or when excused from attendance by permission of the Board, shall constitute a resignation. In the event of such resignation, the vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term as herein provided.

Section 2. Section 3.14.040 of the Municipal Code
of the City of Richmond is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.14.040 Terms of office of members. The term of each member of the commission shall be for three years; provided, however, that of the members first appointed after the effective date of this section, five shall serve for a term of one year, five shall serve for a term of two years, and five shall serve for a term of three years. The number of years that the members first appointed shall serve shall be determined by those members by lot at the first meeting at which they are all assembled. No member shall serve for more than three consecutive full terms.

Section 3. Section 3.16.010 of the Municipal Code of the City of Richmond is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.16.010 Membership. There is created a library commission of the city which shall consist of five commissioners appointed by the mayor with approval of the council of the city, each of whom shall be a registered voter residing within the city, and whose term shall be five years with the exception of the first commission. Upon their appointment, the first commissioners so appointed shall so classify themselves by lot that one commissioner thereof will go out of office on the second Monday in July, 1958, one commissioner will go out of office on the second Monday in July, 1959, one commissioner will go out of office on the second Monday in July, 1960, one commissioner will go out of office on the second Monday of July, 1961, and one commissioner will go out of office on the second Monday of July, 1962. Any vacancy upon the library commission shall be filled by appointment by the mayor with the approval of the council for the unexpired term. No member shall serve for more than two consecutive full terms. The absence of any member of the commission from more than three regularly scheduled meetings of the commission within any twelve-consecutive-month period shall constitute an automatic resignation from the commission. Such a resignation shall not, however, disqualify an individual from subsequently being appointed to the same or any other city commission or board. The provisions of this section shall operative prospectively so as to apply only to absences which occur after December 30, 1974. Any and all absences of members occurring prior to that date which did not result in resignations are excused. In the event of any such resignation, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired portion of the term of the appointee's predecessor in the manner herein provided.

Section 4. Section 3.20.030[✓] of the Municipal Code of the City of Richmond is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.20.030 Term of office of members. The term of office of members of the commission shall be for four years; provided, however, that of the members first appointed after the effective date of this section, three shall be appointed for a term of one year, two shall be appointed for a term of two years, two shall be appointed for a term of three years, and two shall be appointed for a term of four years. Any vacancies on the commission shall be filled by appointment by the mayor for the unexpired portion of the term. No member shall serve for more than two consecutive full terms.

Section 5. Section 3.24.010 of the Municipal Code of the City of Richmond is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.24.010 Membership.[✓] There is created a Recreation and Parks Commission consisting of nine members which shall be appointed by the mayor. All members shall be residents of the City of Richmond. The terms of office of each member of the commission shall be for three years. No member shall serve for more than three consecutive full terms. To aid the mayor in selecting members for appointment, the Recreation and Parks Commission may suggest qualified and interested persons eligible for appointment for each vacancy to be filled. The Director of Recreation and Parks shall serve as ex officio member of the commission.

The absence of any member of the commission from more than three regularly scheduled meetings of the commission within any twelve-consecutive-month period shall constitute an automatic resignation from the commission. Such a resignation shall not, however, disqualify an individual from subsequently being appointed to the same or any other city commission or board. In the event of any such resignation, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired portion of the appointee's predecessor in the manner provided for original appointments.

Section 6. Section 3.30.040[✓] of the Municipal Code of the City of Richmond is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.30.040 Terms of office. The members of the commission shall hold office for a period of three years, except that the terms of the initial appointees hereunder shall be staggered in such a manner so that three members' terms shall expire one year from the date of their appointment to the commission; four members' terms shall expire two years from the date of their appointment to the commission; and four members' terms shall expire three years from the date of their appointment to the commission. The members shall draw lots at the first meeting at which all of the commissioners are present to determine the period for which each initial appointee shall serve. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy prior to the expiration of the term for which the member's predecessor was appointed shall serve for the balance of said predecessor's unexpired term. No member shall serve for more than three consecutive full terms.

Section 7. Section 3.36.050[✓] of the Municipal Code of the City of Richmond is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.36.050 Terms of office. The term of each member of the commission shall be for four years; provided, however, that of the members first appointed after the effective date of this section, three shall be appointed to serve for two years, and four shall be appointed to serve for four years, as determined by lot by such members at the first regularly scheduled meeting following the adoption of this chapter. No member shall serve for more than two consecutive full terms.

Section 8. Section 3.48.050 of the Municipal Code of the City of Richmond is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.48.050⁴ Terms of office. The term of each member of the commission shall be two years; provided, however, that the terms of the members first appointed after the effective date of this section shall be as follows:

Of the initial members, four shall be appointed to serve for two years, and three shall be appointed to serve for one year, as determined by lot by such members at the first regular scheduled meeting following the adoption of this chapter. No member shall serve for more than four consecutive full terms.

Section 9. Section 3.50.040 of the Municipal Code of the City of Richmond is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.50.040[✓] Terms of office. The term of each member of the commission shall be for two years; provided, however, that of the members first appointed after the effective date of this section, seven shall be appointed to serve for two years, and six shall be appointed to serve for one year, as determined by lot by such members at the first regularly scheduled meeting following the adoption of this chapter. No member shall serve for more than four consecutive full terms.

Section 10. Section 3.54.040 of the Municipal Code of the City of Richmond is hereby amended to read as follows:

3.54.040 Terms of office. The term of each member of the Commission shall be for three (3) years; provided, however, that of the members first appointed after the effective date of this section, three shall be appointed to serve for one year, three shall be appointed to serve for two years, and three shall be appointed to serve for three years as determined by lot by such members at the first regularly scheduled meeting following the adoption of this chapter. No member shall serve for more than three consecutive full terms.

Section 11. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force on and after its final passage and adoption.
