About the Mayor

Tom Butt was re-elected to his second term as Mayor of Richmond in 2018 and previously served on the Richmond City Council for nearly 20 years. He has prioritized improving quality of life by working to reduce crime, protecting the environment, seeking quality jobs and education opportunities for residents, assessing access to healthy foods, advancing social equity, and more. His work has led to the launch of the Richmond-San Francisco Ferry, the enrollment of Richmond into MCE Clean Energy, the establishment of the Richmond Promise, and a wide range of legislative initiatives focused on quality of life and growth. Tom represents the City of Richmond in a number of regional agencies dealing with issues such as local governance, conservation, the environment, and transportation.
